

Political & Social Power in Victorian Saint Paul

Step back to the 19th century at the Alexander Ramsey House, the home of Minnesota's first territorial governor.

Discover the unique legacy of one of Minnesota's founding families. Tour the beautifully preserved Victorian-era mansion and learn about the political and social power wielded by the wealthy and influential residents of Saint Paul's historic Irvine Park.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- Explore three floors filled with over 14,000 original items and furnishings.
- Learn the traditions of social calls and courtship.
- Taste a treat and see the "modern appliances" of a Victorian-era kitchen.
- Listen to excerpts from the Ramsey family's personal letters and journals.
- Discover the private and public lives of the Ramsey family and their household servants.
- Learn how Ramsey's granddaughters preserved the home for future generations.

Don't miss this unique experience.
Book your tour today!

1-844-MNSTORY

90-minute tour • $15 per person/$13 students and seniors
(Min./Max. group size: 15/40)

Available year-round

Reservations must be made no later than 3 weeks in advance. Please notify when booking of any potential mobility issues or language/interpreter needs.

Alexander Ramsey House

A true decorative arts masterpiece, this remarkable Victorian-era house was home to Minnesota's first territorial governor and his family.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Over 14,000 original items and furnishings
- Stories of Victorian life and the Ramsey household
- Carriage House museum store featuring Victorian-inspired gifts

The Alexander Ramsey House is open for events and programs only. Days, times and prices vary.

For complete event information and tickets:
MNHS.org/calendar, 651-259-3015 or 1-844-MNSTORY.

