

MIDTOWN GLOBAL MARKET

MANY TASTES. ONE PLACE.

Midtown Global Market gives new and emerging entrepreneurs, many of them low income and recent immigrants, a prime location and support to build a business and a future – for themselves, their families, and their employees. At the same time, it is making the surrounding neighborhood safer and healthier. It's win-win all the way. As their enterprises grow, new business owners employ others, serve as role models, and inspire other up and coming entrepreneurs.
